Implement interventions in school districts across the state to build awareness, capacity, support and engagement

Increase the diversity of stakeholders engaged in conversations about literacy

Increased number of Kansas fourth graders who are reading at grade level

Improved student academic achievement

Increased readiness for work or higher education

Increased health equity

Increased economic equity

Reduced health disparities

Improved health for all Kansans

Kansas Health Foundation
- Staff
- Reputation
- Partnerships with grantees and other stakeholders
- Experience
- Commitment
- Grantmaking
- Communications
- Policy Advocacy
- Other KHF focus areas
- Research and evaluation

Increased capacity of schools/communities/families to support greater literacy

Increased awareness and will to take action about literacy issues and support for solutions

Increased action to support literacy/student achievement

Increased graduation rates

Policy, Systems, and Environmental Change